

What is shaping ?

Shaping allows Broadband ADSL customers to access the internet at a reduced speed after their download allowance has been exceeded. If you have exceeded your allocated download allowance in one calendar month, your upload and download speed will be reduced to 64kbps. You can view your current ADSL plan displaying your allocated monthly download allowance, and your current data usage by logging into your Easy Internet toolbox.